

Beef Up Your EconEd

Pop Quiz!

- What is the largest city in the "beef state?"
- What city hosts the College World Series each year?
- What city is home to five Fortune 500 company headquarters?
- What city hosted the 2008 US Olympics Swimming Trials and will host again in 2012?
- What city was named the most affordable this year by Forbes Magazine and Kiplingers?
- What city boasts one of the top five zoos in North America?
- What city is home to the second richest man in the world?
- What city should you visit in March?

Here are the facts:

What: 2012 National Association of Economic Educators Annual Spring Conference

When: Friday and Saturday, March 2-3, 2012

Where: Conference Center of Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City- Omaha Branch

Hotel: Embassy Suites Omaha - Downtown/Old Market /555 South 10th Street, Omaha, Nebraska

Tel: 1-402-346-9000

Why:

Great Professional Development! Get together with your Center, Council, and Fed colleagues in an informal setting with lots of time for conversation and information sharing for future economic education work.

Affordable Conference! Hotel rates of $119 including breakfast and evening receptions. Meals provided at the conference, Registration fee $75. Free shuttles to FED.

Easy Travel! Omaha airport served by 8 major airlines, free airport shuttle to and from hotel, 10 minute ride, hotel located in restored area of shops, easy walk to fun places.

Affordable Fun City! Lots of museums, plays, attractions, and things to do close by. Ranked as the second happiest state in America by Main Street.com.

For registration and hotel links go to the NAEE website: www.naee.net

Deadline for registration and hotel block is Jan 29, 2012.